

THOUGHTS FROM BRAD ...

Our Property Team enjoyed our most recent church tours. We have now toured seven buildings and each time we walk away with good ideas for our future building. Please pray that God will direct our steps as we hope and plan for the future of FACC.

I want to thank Dick Donovan for leading devotions at our Men's breakfast this past Tuesday. Our time together helps us enjoy fellowship, build deeper relationships with one another and causes us to dive deeper in our thinking about the Lord and His Word. I will publish our next meeting date soon. If you haven't been able to join us yet, I hope you will next time out.

Oct. 29th -Tonight, in lieu of our evening service, we will meet at Jon and Angie Music's home, which is located at 2145 West Point Road. They will host our time together from 3:00-6:00 p.m. Everyone should bring a food dish and 2 liter of pop to share and bring a lawn chair. The church will provide hotdogs and buns as well. If you enjoy fishing, feel free to bring your fishing rod and bait. If anyone has a corn hole set, bring it along for all to enjoy. We will also have devotions. Our children will enjoy face painting and a craft.

Oct. 30th - Our monthly Property Team meeting will begin at 6:30 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall. We will have a presentation made by the Covenant Group, which is a church building organization from Hebron, Ohio. It is important to participate, so we can eventually make the best-informed decision on which builder to use for the construction of our future building. I want to thank those who have been committed to participating in these meetings.

Nov. 19th - Crusaders in concert. Let's enjoy this Southern Gospel music group. Our Thanksgiving banquet will be immediately following our A.M. worship. Our special offering will cover the cost of the music group and will also go to support Grundy Mountain Mission School. We are asking once again for several of you to make pies or desserts for this special event. If you can donate one large turkey, we are in need of four. See Brad.

Final Thoughts...

"Quite honestly, our society's only hope for moral restoration is for the Church to fulfill it's calling from God. He called it into being so that the world would be impacted by the thoughts, words and deeds of His followers (George Barna)." What this author just described is "discipleship." So, we could say, that "discipleship" is about being and reproducing spiritually mature zealots for Christ. When Jesus told his disciples to "Go" to the entire world, he instructed them to "make disciples." If you and I are not doing that, are we even doing what Jesus would expect? I think we all know the answer to that question. So how about it? Do you think we could all start doing what Jesus expects of us? Just something to think about?
