

THOUGHTS FROM BRAD ...

Hi everyone! I hope you are enjoying this special study entitled: "Rich Toward God." So far we have studied Luke 12 about the man who decided to build bigger barns with God's blessings rather than share with others the goodness of God. Last Sunday, we talked about Malachi's teaching on "Man should not rob God with the tithes and offerings." I hope we understand the need "to be content" in our lives. Next week we will conclude this special study and we will begin walking through the Bible together as I will preach from a passage you read during your daily Bible study.

January 27th- This Wednesday night, we will continue with our theme, "Hope in the Midst of Suffering" as we look at the tragedy that struck the life of minister, Ed Dobson. We will begin by serving chili from 5:15-6:00 p.m. and our study will start at 6:15. I hope you can join us. If so, we ask for a donation of $2-3 per person. In addition to the chili, there will be some additional finger foods and drinks. You must sign up today as the clip boards are being passed around during worship.

February 3rd- You may or may not know that our church each year has our annual congregational meeting held on the first Wednesday night of February. For that meeting, we would like to have those attending bring a dessert. For example, a peanut butter pie, etc... Just saying! The church will provide coffee. The meeting will begin at 6:15 p.m.

February 28th- TALENT NIGHT! We will use this evening to showcase some of the talent here at Fifth Avenue. We will begin at 6:00 p.m. It would be great to have children and adults alike to take part in this gathering. If you can play an instrument or sing, get signed up. There is a sign-up sheet in the coat room. We will have cookies and drinks in the Fellowship Hall following this special evening together.

In His Service,

Brad
