

THOUGHTS FROM BRAD ...

I want to begin my article by thanking John and Angie Music for hosting our Fall Heritage gathering at their farm. Although we had some expected weather that tried to "rain on our parade," the fifty of us still made the best of things and people of all ages had a great time on the hayride. Thanks to all who chose to come and share in rich fellowship together.

This past Tuesday, several came and donated their time to prepare a large meal for our local police department. Others donated food items to share with the police as well. You might ask, "Why did our church do this?" Well, this past Summer, I sat down with Ron Enlow for a few meetings and we brainstormed possible ways of how to better "reach out" to our community. Let me just say, with all the grief that police endure today, we wanted to let them know that there are those who appreciate their daily sacrifice. Please pray for these officers and their families as they serve our community.

During the month of November, I would like to hear from you about why you are thankful for God? I plan to use some of your responses in our worship services. If you would like to make a submission, please send it to 5thavecofc@gmail.com.

There is still time to sign up for our annual Thanksgiving banquet. You can do so at the coat room bulletin board on the way to our lobby. We had a great response last week and I guarantee you that the food, music and fellowship will be worth your while. The dinner will begin at 5 p.m. and the concert will follow. If you agreed to help with the dinner preparation and work in the kitchen, please meet me down front of the sanctuary immediately after our worship today for a very brief meeting.

Wednesday elective plans... Nov. 9th & 16th will be our last days of study this month. We will have 2 independent Bible studies on Dec. 7th & 14th, and then we will dismiss our Wednesday evening studies until February 1st.

We had a great meeting with the McKnight group this past Wednesday night about our site plan development for the new property. It was very informative! Please continue to pray now for our upcoming Dec. 6th zoning meeting, where they will decide as to the "special exception" use of this property. If all goes well with this decision, then we will close on the property before Dec. 13th. Thank you for your prayers, and for your financial giving toward this purchase.

In His Service,
Brad SeEVERS

Dinner Out!

Let's go to Pizza Cottage (Ety and Fair). I reserved their room for us. Go after Thanksgiving. December 17th Saturday at 6pm. We can also discuss a trip to the Amish Country Theater while we are there. Join us for great fellowship, good food and Christian conversation. Sign-up sheet on the Board.
