

THOUGHTS FROM BRAD ...

Last Sunday we participated in an historic vote for our church. You should have received a phone call this past Sunday that the congregation voted to purchase the land on Sheridan Drive. We look forward to having a new building in the future on that site. Please pray for the upcoming Dec. 6th meeting with the City Zoning board that they will approve this land for a church building. We will continue to give you periodic updates concerning this project as we have new information. We thank you for placing your trust in the leadership and in your "God who can do immeasurably more than what we could ever ask, dream or imagine."

You can still join us each Wednesday night for "The Anatomy of a Disciple" elective. This elective is offered each week at 6:15 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall from now to Nov. 16th. The only night we will not meet during this time frame is Oct. 12th (fair week). All the subjects for this study are depicted in the picture to the left.

SAVE THE DATES...

- October 30th- "Fall Family Night" at the Music Farm near Bremen. This event is for everyone at Fifth. Some of the activities will include: wagon rides, bonfire, hotdog and marshmallow roast, fishing, etc....Look for more details about times and activities in next week's article. This would be a great event for you to invite a friend.
- Nov. 20th- Annual Thanksgiving Banquet and Concert by "Persuaded." Our dinner will begin at 5:00 p.m and the concert will follow. This Gospel quartet shared with us last year and did a fabulous job. You won't want to miss this incredible night of giving thanks to our God. If you would like to assist with helping in the kitchen, please let me know asap.

FYI...

- In the event one of our loved ones at Fifth Avenue passes away, Mary Alice Coats is the contact person for this ministry. She will oversee any funeral dinner and will handle all arrangements. If you would like to assist her in this important ministry, please contact her.
- At this time, I want to ask you to pray for something personal for my family. My grandson Kasen has recently become ill which caused his surgeries to be cancelled. Please pray that God will watch over him and will heal him.

Thank you,

Brad
