

THOUGHTS FROM BRAD ...

I just want to remind those who attend on Wednesday night's that our Bible study has now been suspended until September 16th. I look forward to an exciting Fall elective study and am making plans as I write this today for what we will dig into. I hope you feel more capable now to "Live a Life of Victory."

July 29th- This Wednesday, we are hosting a Family Fun Night at the church. From (6-9 pm) we will have family activities for you to enjoy. Everyone who attends will enjoy an ice cream sundae with their favorite toppings, as well as our feature presentation of Mitch Shell's Blacklight Puppet Show. The Blacklight show will begin at 6:30 p.m. so be sure to get here by 6:00 p.m. The entire church and their extended families and friends are invited. There will be a prize given to the family who brings the most people with them. We have a family who will be donating all the ice cream for the night. I want to thank those who brought candy for the event. If you would still like to contribute but did not have time to go to the store, you may give a cash donation today to me and we will make sure to use it to offset cost.

Ministry Opportunity! Last Sunday one person informed me that they could help volunteer in assisting individuals off the lift chair on Sunday mornings before our worship service. If you could help with this need, please let Tim Huffman know today. I want to thank Mike Weaver and Brenda Hines for volunteering to pick up some of our shut-ins for the worship service. Keep up the good work.

August 26th- Dinner and a Movie. Our meal will be served from 5:30-6:15 p.m. The entire church is invited. Immediately after our meal we will watch a classic family feature film for your enjoyment. More details to come. I hope you will join us!

Just a thought from this week's Bible reading. Solomon searched for meaning to this life by two methods: (1) Observe others; (2) Try it and see. When it came to pleasures-whether that pleasure was from accomplishing something great, amassing wealth or participating in the things of this world, he definitely approached life by "try it and see." Unfortunately, you and I are often tempted to take this approach and may even say, "How can I tell (or know) unless I try it for myself?" Allow me to just encourage you that you don't have to try something in order to know what is best for you. How fortunate we are to have Scripture as a reliable guide to help us know what is best. Let's use His Word to guide us daily. God is always a better guide than experience!

In His Service,

thankyou

I want to say a big thank you for all the cards, phone calls, and visits, and most of all the prayers that were offered upon my behalf. I know I would not have improved so much since my stroke if it had not been for the Good Lord on my side. So, thanks to all for everything. Love and prayers ~ Virginia Wentz

We want to thank everyone for the recent cards, visits, and prayers. We appreciate our church family!
