

THOUGHTS FROM BRAD ...

Sept. 26th- Today is the last day to sign up for our 3F luncheon. Please make sure you do so as clipboards are passed around today during our worship hour. We will offer a taco bar. As you can imagine, there will be plenty of options for how you want to build your tacos so bring an appetite. All the fun will begin at 11:15. We will enjoy some music, have devotions and enjoy great fellowship.

This past Wednesday we began a five session elective series entitled: “Thriving in Babylon.” In an ever-changing culture, you might be asking yourself, “How can I survive in this spiritually hostile environment?” That’s a great question. As we study the life of Daniel, we will learn how Daniel did it even though the odds were greatly against he and his friends. Even if you missed week one, you can still join us for the remaining weeks.

Please take note of the following dates this class will be offered at 6:15 p.m.

- 10/3...10/17...10/24...11/7
- Please note: 9/26...3F Luncheon @ 11:15 a.m...10/10 No class due to the fair...10/31 3F luncheon @ 11:15 a.m.

Dates to keep in mind for November...

Nov, 4th-Fall Harvest Party at Jon & Angie Music’s home. 3-6 p.m. More details to come!

Nov. 18th- Annual Thanksgiving Banquet. Concert will be performed by “My Brother’s Keeper” during our morning worship. Dinner will follow after the concert. We are hoping to have four large turkeys donated. See Brad if you can help with this need.

Just a thought...I think we have a lot of halfhearted people filling the pews of churches today. In today’s world, if someone attends a church service once a month, they feel they regularly attend that church. They want to give the bare minimum to the One who gave everything for them. If you try to live as a Christian but live as you please, you will find conflict. Some people have too much of the Lord to be happy in this world, and too much of this world to be happy in the Lord. They’re living in a miserable no-man’s-land.

In Joshua 14, Caleb and Joshua are together and as Caleb speaks of what had been promised to him by Moses, and he makes a statement to Joshua about his life I will not forget. Caleb said, “I wholeheartedly followed the Lord my God.”

If you want to finish well and wholeheartedly follow God, then you won’t compromise but instead stand your ground. You will be more concerned with the approval of God than the approval of people.

Think about it!

Brad
