

THOUGHTS FROM BRAD ...

Let me begin by saying thanks to Ron and Ruth Enlow for making sure our donuts arrived safely to the building last Sunday, and none of them were eaten. What discipline they showed. A big thank you also to Jean Azbell for setting up and making the coffee for our time of fellowship. I also want to say thanks to the choir and the children for providing special programming for the service. It was a nice day spent together as we celebrated the resurrection.

I want to welcome Steve SeEVERS today as he is preaching in my absence. I am out of town speaking for a revival so please make Steve and Lydia feel welcome. Tonight, one of our own men will be our "Mystery Speaker," and Lowell Trimmer will be leading the p.m. time of worship. We hope you will be a part of this special evening together.

Here are a few dates to remember...

- 5/1 "Be Comforted" Wednesday elective at 6:15 p.m.
- 5/8 "Be Comforted" Wednesday elective at 6:15 p.m.
- 5/12 No evening service due to Mother's Day.
- 5/15 "Be Comforted" Wednesday elective at 6:15 p.m.
- 5/19 Board Meeting (look below)
- 5/22 No elective class this week.
- 5/29 3F Luncheon at 11:15 a.m.
- 6/2 Grundy Mission trip Informational Meeting (Immediately after a.m. worship)

We have been asked that our next Board meeting begin with a noon luncheon, followed by a time of "Reposition Training" with Tim Wallingford. Please make any arrangements with others so that each of the Board can participate.

Just a thought ,... Theologian A.B. Simpson said, "God is preparing his heroes; and when the opportunity comes, he can fit them into their places in a moment, and the world will wonder where they came from."

Did it ever occur to you that you could be one of God's heroes and that God is equipping and preparing you for something yet ahead?

God has put us on this earth for a purpose. And he has put all of us where we are for such a time as this. You can find that purpose and dedicate your life to the glory of God, or you can ignore it and chase after the empty promises of this world. It's really your choice.
