

THOUGHTS FROM BRAD ...

Today we are looking at Romans 12:14. Anyone who is a Christian knows that during life, there are times you certainly feel persecuted. Not to minimize what we go through, but none of us face life or death situations because of our faith in Jesus Christ. But when others choose to persecute us, what is our normal response. This is what we will focus on today; Paul's instructions to handle these moments properly. I hope it helps us all!

Jan. 12- This evening is "Movie Night" at the church. We will watch a video entitled "Unstoppable," featuring Kirk Cameron. During this film, you will take a personal hope-filled journey to better understand,

"Where is God in the midst of tragedy and suffering?" Please bring a snack for everyone to enjoy. Starts at 6:00 p.m. This will be held in the Fellowship Hall and the film is one hour long. Join us!

Jan. 20- Men's Breakfast and Devotions at Todd's Mountain View Restaurant. We start at 9:00 a.m. I look forward to spending this time with you guys each month. Please let me know if you plan to join us.

Jan. 22- Our Winter Elective will begin each week at 6:15 p.m. We are going to begin a seven-week journey through the Book of 1 Peter. Each session, we will watch a (10-14 minute) video by Kyle Idleman, Lead Minister of the Southeast Christian Church in Louisville, Ky. The rest of our evening will be Bible based. I hope you will join us in this study.

Just a thought... Have you ever wondered, "How do I love an imperfect church?" Jesus makes this simple for us. It is we who make this hard! Jesus said, "Just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another." Actually, he took this even a step further. Jesus said, "It's our love for one another that will set us apart from the world." It is way to easy to get distracted from what He said! Our focus, needs to be, on the ridiculous love of Christ toward us and our ridiculous love for others. Have a great week!

In His Service,

Brad
